

Dear Commissioners:

The FCC market rules should serve the public interest foremost, rather than cater to private interests. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules. Further, Chairman Powell often says we must "validate or eliminate" the FCC market rules. The burden of proof should rest not upon supporters of the rules, but upon those commissioners favoring rule change. The commissions favoring change should have to show how the proposed changes would benefit the American public, not just the media corporations.
